PREFATORY NOTE.

This volume, prepared under legislative direction, is intended as a practical statistical compilation only. The utmost brevity has been observed, consistent with clearness.

The sketches of State officials, members of Congress from Alabama, Supreme Court Judges, and the members of the Legislature, although not more than mere outlines, will serve a useful purpose in answering in part at least many questions as to the personality of the public men of the State, and in future these sketches will probably be more valued than at present. Every effort has been made to insure perfect accuracy of all details.

It is believed that the remaining parts of the compilation will be found of daily use and value by the people of the State. The part devoted to the several Constitutional Conventions of Alabama is the first effort yet made to bring together in one place all material of this character concerning the makers of our organic laws and their work.

Section five (5) of the Act of February 27, 1901, directing this publication, is as follows:

"An official and statistical register of the State of Alabama shall be compiled every two years by the Director, to contain (1) brief sketches of the several State officials, the members of Congress from Alabama, the Supreme Court Judges, the members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama; (2) rosters of all State and County officials; (3) lists of all State institutions, with officials; (4) State and County population and election statistics, and (5) miscellaneous statistics; and said register shall be published in an edition of one thousand copies for free distribution, the printing and binding to be paid for as other printing and binding hereinbefore provided."

I. STATE EXECUTIVE OFFICES, DEPARTMENTS, AND BOARDS.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

(Code, 1896, vol. i, Sec. 1953 et seq.; Constitution, Article V.)

Governor.—His excellency William Dorsey Jelks, of Eufaula.

Lieutenant-Governor.—Dr. Russell M. Cunningham, of Ensley.

Private Secretary.—James Kirkman Jackson, of Montgomery.

Recording Secretary.—Michel Hamilton Screws, of Montgomery.

Messenger.—Miss Mamie Offutt, of Montgomery.

Keeper of the Capitol.—J. K. Jackson, ex-officio.

Capitol Watchmen.—Joel Barnett, of Montgomery.

W. F. Claughton, of Verbena.

Walter C. Jackson, of Brundige.

Capitol Servants.—George W. Doak, Kelly Adams, Tom Shorter, Walter Grant, and John Jesse (all colored.)

WILLIAM DORSEY JELKS, of Eufaula, Barbour county, is a native of Alabama. He was born November 7, 1855 in the little village of Warrior Stand, then in Russell, but now in Macon county. His father was J. W. D. Jelks, who gave up his life, June, 1862, in the cause of the Confederacy, while a captain in the gallant Third Alabama Regiment, Infantry, C. S. A. The father of the latter was Robert Jelks, a native of Halifax county, North Carolina, whose wife was Matilda Crowell, a half sister of John Crowell, the first Territorial delegate, and also the first member of Congress from Alabama. The mother of Gov. Jelks was Jane Goodrum Frazer, of one of the early families of Georgia and Alabama. He was bereft of his father at the age of six years, and his early youth was passed at Union Springs. Here he was trained in the country schools. In 1873 he entered Mercer University in Georgia, from which he was graduated in 1876. Literary studies, while in college, came easily first in their attraction for the mind of Gov. Jelks. His subsequent adoption of the profession of journalism grew out of a love for the ancient and early English classics. In 1876 he returned to Union Springs where he acquired an interest in the Herald, already in operation there. Shortly afterward, he resolved on a wider career, and removed to the city of Eufaula, which is now his home. In Eufaula he acquired a controlling interest in the Eufaula Times, which, under his management, soon attained wide circulation and influence. Long before he entered politics he was a well known figure in State affairs. His paper always fought the battles of Democracy with vigor. As an editorial writer, Mr. Jelks was known over the whole of Alabama. His familiarity with men and measures, his fair treatment of his contemporaries, his lucid grasp of intricate problems, all combined to make him a man of mark, when local conditions brought him forward in 1898 to represent the county of Barbour in the State senate. Prior to his election as a State senator in 1898 Mr. Jelks had held no public office, palian. On February 21, 1900, Mr. Jackson was married to Helen, daughter of William A. Gunter, of Montgomery, Ala., and wife Ellen Flowers Poellnitz, of Marengo county.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

(Code, 1896, vol. i, Sec. 1794 et. seq.)

Secretary.—James Thomas Heflin, of Lafayette.

Chief Clerk.—Albert C. Sexton, of Cullman.

JAMES THOMAS HEFLIN, of Lafayette, Chambers county, was born April 9, 1869, at Louina, Randolph county, and is the son of Dr. Wilson Lumpkin Heflin, a native of Fayetteville, Fayette county, Ga., and his wife Lavicie Catherine, daughter of Harrington and Sophia Phillips, of Louina. His grandfather, Wyatt Heflin, a native of Orange county, N. C., was one of the early settlers in Randolph county, which county he represented in the legislature, 1841, 1843 and 1845. Mr. Heflin was educated at the "Old Liberty School house" at Louina, under different teachers. He matriculated at the Southern University, and thence entered the A. and M. College, Auburn. He left that institution at the end of the junior year, and began the study of law at Lafayette. He was two terms mayor of Lafayette, 1893-95; register in chancery of Chambers county from 1894 to 1896; in 1896 elected representative from Chambers county, in the general assembly, and in 1898 was re-elected. In 1901 he was elected delegate to the Constitutional Convention of that year. He was a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee in the period when the new Constitution was pending at the polls for ratification, and entered with energy into the campaign to secure ratification. Mr. Heflin was elected to the office of Secretary of State in November 1902, the first general election held under the new constitution. He is a Democrat, and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. On December 18, 1895, he was married at Lafayette to Minnie Kate, daughter of Zach and Ida Schuessler, of that place.

The senior Isaac Hill was a first cousin to the late Senator Benjamin Hill, of Georgia. Mr. Hill attended the private schools at Auburn and in the neighborhood near his father's plantation home in Macon (now Lee) county. In 1877 at the age of 16 years, he attended the Park high school at Tuskegee. The year following he matriculated at Emory College, Georgia, and was graduated thence in two years, with the degree of A. B. Three years later, his alma mater conferred on him the honorary degree of A. M. The year after graduation, in January 1881, Mr. Hill entered upon his career as teacher. He has taught successively at Whitesville, Ga., 1881-84; Easonville, St. Clair county, Ala., 1884-85; Sparta, Ga., 1885-87; Easonville, 1887-91; Springville, 1891-96; and Gadsden, 1896-1902. He was president of the Spring Lake College, Springville, 1895-96, and left that position to take the superintendency of the Gadsden public schools, which position he held when elected State Superintendent of Education, 1902. He is a member of the Phi Delta Fraternity, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and of the Masons. He is a Democrat, and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. He joined the Alabama Educational Association in 1884, and in 1888 attended the National Educational Association at San Francisco, where he became a member of that body. Mr. Ballard was educated in the country schools. He is a farmer. He was a justice of the peace from 1892 to 1900. He was beat chairman of the Populist organization until his return to the Democratic party, after which he was chosen to the same position in the latter party. He is a deacon in the Missionary Baptist church. On December 21, 1882, Mr. Ballard was married to Dannie, daughter of Daniel J. Hardy and wife Julia Ann E. Allen, of South Carolina ancestry. In November, 1902, he was elected to the legislature. Mr. Ballard takes much interest in educational matters; and is now president of the board of trustees of the M. I. Academy at Alexander City.

JAMES WILLIAM STROTHER, of Dadeville, was born about forty years ago near Milltown, Chambers county, and is the son of George M. Strother, of that place, and wife Elizabeth M., daughter of James M. and Elizabeth A. Hardy. G. M. Strother, his father, was a Confederate soldier, and died a prisoner of war at Camp Chase, Ohio, February 27, 1865. Mr. Strother was educated at the common schools of Chambers county and at the Milltown institute. After teaching school for some years, he was admitted to the bar and began the practice in 1890 at Dadeville, where he has since resided; was attorney for Tallapoosa county, 1893-1900; was a Democratic presidential elector for the 5th District in 1900; was for a number of years a member of the Democratic executive committee of the 5th Congressional district, and of Tallapoosa county; and was elected a member of the legislature in November, 1902. On February 6, 1887, he was married to Mattie D., daughter of Davis W. and Annie E. Gardner, who reside near Lafayette, Ala.

TUSCALOOSA COUNTY.

JOHN MANLY FOSTER, of Tuscaloosa, was born at Foster's, Tuscaloosa county, Ala., November 5, 1860, and is the son of Rev. John Collier Foster, of that place, and wife Georgia A. Mahorry. He was educated in the country schools; graduated at Howard college with the degree of A. B. in 1880; and at the University of Alabama with the degree of LL. B. in 1883. Mr. Foster began the practice of law at Anniston in 1885, and after one year removed to Tuscaloosa, where he has since pursued his profession. He was elected a member of the legislature in 1890; solicitor for Tuscaloosa law and equity court in 1897 and again in 1901; was elected to the constitutional convention of 1901, serving as chairman of the committee on amending constitution and miscellaneous business, and a member of the committee on order, consistency and harmony in that body; and elected to the legislature in November, 1902. Mr. Foster is a Democrat, and a Baptist. His first wife was Kathleen Mary Clarke, to whom he was married April 19, 1893, and his second, Mabel Radford Clarke, to whom he was married October 12, 1898, both daughters of Hon. Richard H. Clarke, of Mobile, and wife Mary Kate Burke.

CHARLES BELL VERNER, of Tuscaloosa, was born June 25, 1866, at Retreat, Oconee county, S. C., and is the son of Ebenezer Pettigrew Verner, of that county and State, and wife Emily, daughter of Robert Singleton Crow Foster and wife Susan Young, of Greenville, S. C. Mr. Verner was educated in the common schools in his native county; entered the University of South Carolina, but did not complete the course. He came to Tuscaloosa in 1888 to assist his brother, the late Prof. Wm. H. Verner, in the Verner Military Institute. He attended the law department of the University of Alabama, but did not graduate. In 1889 he began the practice of law at Tuscaloosa; in 1893 he purchased the Tuscaloosa Weekly Gazette, which he edited for a few years; but finally disposed of the paper and devoted himself exclusively to the practice of law. In 1897-98 he was University land commissioner; and was elected to the legislature in 1902 as a Democrat. He is a deacon in the Presbyterian church. On October 2, 1895, he married Lizzie Armantine, daughter of John Catlin Cade and wife Sallie Jemison, of Tuscaloosa. Mr. Verner's father was in the Confederate army; and his grandfather was a soldier in the Revolution.

WALKER COUNTY.

JOHN HOLLIS BANKHEAD, Jr., of Jasper, was born July 8, 1872, at Moscow, Marion (now Lamar) county, Ala., and is the son of Hon. John Hollis Bankhead, a native of the same place, and wife Tallulah James, daughter of James Brockman and wife Mary Elizabeth Stairley, of Greenville county, S. C. Mr. Bankhead graduated at the University of Alabama with the degree of A. B. in 1891. He was president of the Society of the Alumni of the university, 1900-1901; was captain of company "M," Second Alabama regiment, National Guard, and is now major of that regiment. After graduating in the law department of the Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., he was admitted to the bar in 1893, and has since practiced continuously at Jasper. At the general election of 1902 he was elected to the legislature. He was a nominee of his party to the proposed constitutional convention of 1899. He is a Democrat, and a Methodist. On December 26, 1894, he was married to Musa, daughter of W. W. Harkins and wife Lula Burress, of Fayette, Ala.

Mr. Gray had limited advantages of education. He farmed until 1886, when he became a practical miner. He is a Democrat. On January 17, 1871, he married Amelia, daughter of John Wise, and wife Elizabeth Morgan Jackson, of Henry county, Ala.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

HIRAM MOUNGER POSEY, of Sunflower, was born November 20, 1842, near Old Wakefield, Washington county, and is the son of Andrew Trail Posey, a native of Spartanburg district, S. C., but who early emigrated to Alabama, and wife Eliza Ann, daughter of Hiram Mounger and wife Berthenia Denley, of Washington county. Mr. Posey was educated in the common schools and academies of the State. He was elected tax assessor of Washington county in 1884 for a four year term; was elected representative in the legislature in 1888; and he was re-elected in November, 1902. He enlisted in company "I," Thirty-sixth Alabama regiment, infantry, June, 1862, and was in nearly all the engagements of the western army. He was wounded in the battle of Chickamauga, September 19, 1863, and at New Hope Church, Ga., May 15, 1864. He was elected third lieutenant of his company after the battle of Atlanta, but was never commissioned. He is a Democrat, and a Methodist. He is unmarried.

WILCOX COUNTY.

SAMUEL CALVIN COOK, of Nellie, was born November 6, 1837, in Wilcox county, and is the son of Daniel Cook, a native of Chesterfield district, S. C., who lived in Wilcox county, and wife Martha Warren, daughter of Joseph Norwood, of Hartsville, Parlington district, S. C., and though his father is a lineal descendant of General Moultrie of the Revolution. Mr. Cook attended the primary schools of Wilcox county, was graduated from Howard college with the degree of A. B. in the class of 1859; and read law as early as 1861. He was elected representative in the legislature November, 1902. Mr. Cook enlisted in the "Wilcox Dragoons," which was sent to Pensacola in the early months of 1861, and there he was in command of the squad which fired the first small arms in the war. Later this organization became Co. "D," Third Alabama regiment, cavalry, and with it he participated in most of the important battles of the western army of the Confederacy. He was promoted captain, for gallant conduct at Green River, Ky. He was later assigned to the staff of General Wheeler. He was paroled April 29, and set out for home, arriving May 31, 1865, having served four years and one month. Mr. Cook is a Democrat, and a deacon in the Missionary Baptist church. He married, March 11, 1861, Mary Harrell, daughter of George Samuel Gullett, of Wilcox, and wife Elizabeth McPherson.

The | history and debates | of the | Convention | of | the people of Alabama, | begun and held in the city of Montgomery, on the seventh | day of January, 1861; in which is preserved the speeches of the secret sessions, | and many valuable State papers. |
By William R. Smith, | one of the delegates from Tuscaloosa. |
Montgomery: White, Pfister & Co. | Tuscaloosa: D. Woodruff. |
Atlanta: Wood, Hanleither, Rice & Co. | 1861. |

8vo. pp. 464, 1, xii.

Of great interest and value. The entire debates are not given.

"My object has been to preserve the political features of the debates, and hence I have not attempted, as a general rule, to give the discussions on the ordinary subjects of legislation. Many of the ablest speeches delivered in the Convention were upon the changes in the constitution of the State, not touching the political necessities of the new condition of things."—Explanation by author.

"The reader may rely upon the perfect authenticity of the historical parts of the book, and upon the accuracy of the speeches as to the sentiments uttered and the positions assumed by the speakers on the points arising in debate."—

"The convention to frame a new constitution met on the 5th of November, 1867, and it was a remarkable assemblage. Some of its members were Alabamians, intent on the best government that might be possible; others were natives of the State, with not a thought beyond self; many were negroes, for the most part densely ignorant, and many were northern men who, having failed in life at home, had come south to seek their fortunes in politics, carrying all their worldly possessions in grip-sacks, 'carpet baggers.' In a Democratic newspaper the place of nativity of ninety-seven out of a hundred members of the convention purports to have been given; thirty-one of them being from Vermont, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Maine, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Canada and Scotland."—H. A. Herbert, in Why the Solid South?

PROCLAMATION DECLARING RESULT OF ELECTION AND CONVENING CONVENTION.

WHEREAS, under the terms of an Act, entitled "An Act to provide for holding a Convention to revise and amend the Constitution of this State," approved December 11th, 1900, it is made the duty of the Governor, in the event that a majority of all persons voting at an election, provided for in said Act, voted for the holding of a Convention for the purpose designated in said Act, to give public notice of the fact that a majority of the electors of the State, voting at the said election, voted for Convention; and,

WHEREAS, on Tuesday, May 7th, 1901, the Governor, the Secretary of State and the Attorney General did assemble, in accordance with the terms of said Act, in the office of the Secretary of State, and did open and canvass the returns of the said election from the sixty-six counties of the State, and did ascertain and determine from said returns that a majority of the electors of the State, voting at said election, had voted in favor of holding said Convention; and,

WHEREAS, the following citizens of the State, viz: [Here follows the names of delegates elected from the State at large, the several congressional districts, senatorial districts, and from the different counties of the State.]

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William J. Samford, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby, in pursuance of the requirements of said Act, give public notice of the fact that a majority of the electors of the State, voting at the said election, provided for the calling of a Convention, voted for Convention, and I therefore call upon the hereinabove named citizens of the said State, who have been declared to be elected as delegates to the said Convention from the State at large, and from the counties of the State, to convene in the Hall of the House of Representatives in the city of Montgomery, Alabama, on Tuesday, the 21st day of May, 1901, at 12 Meridian, of said day, and then and there proceed to organize said convention, and to perform the duties designated in said act.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Great Seal of the State [GREAT SEAL.] to be affixed at the Capitol in the City of Montgomery, Alabama, this the 9th day of May, 1901.

WM. J. SAMFORD,
Governor.

By the Governor:
Robert P. McDavid,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION FOR ELECTION ON THE QUESTION OF RATIFICATION OR REJECTION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

WHEREAS, under the terms of section 22 of an act approved December 11th, 1900, entitled an act:

"To provide for the holding of a Convention to revise and amend the Constitution of this State," which said section reads in part, as follows:

"Be it further enacted, That in the event of the framing of such Constitution by said Convention, it shall be the duty of the Governor within one week after the filing of the same with the Secretary of State, to issue his proclamation, published as heretofore required for the proclamation to assemble the Convention to make known the fact that such Constitution has been framed; and thereby require an election to be held in the several counties of this State, in the same manner and by the same officers as general elections are required to be held for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of this State for ratification or rejection of said Constitution," and,

WHEREAS, The Convention did assemble in the Hall of the House of Representatives, in the Capitol, at Montgomery, Alabama, on Tuesday, May 21, 1901, and there did frame a Constitution in accordance with the provisions of the law as laid down in said above named act:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William D. Jelks, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby, in pursuance of my duty, as provided by section 22 of the said act, appoint Monday, November 11th, 1901, as the day for an election to be held in each county of this State to determine whether the qualified voters will ratify or reject said Constitution, so framed.

The sheriffs and other officers charged with duties connected with the election, will take notice of this proclamation and provide for said election in conformity with the law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State [GREAT SEAL] to be affixed. Done at the Capitol, in the City of Montgomery, Alabama, this 16th day of September, 1901.

WILLIAM D. JELKS,

By the Governor:

Robert P. McDavid,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION NAMING DATE ON WHICH CONSTITUTION IS TO BECOME OPERATIVE.

WHEREAS, It appears from the certificate of the Secretary of State and Attorney General that on the 11th day of November, 1901, at an election held in the several counties in this State, for and against Constitution, that the whole number of votes cast "For Constitution" is One Hundred and Eight Thousand, Six Hundred and Thirteen (108,613), and the whole number of votes cast "Against Constitution" is Eighty One Thousand Seven Hundred and Thirty Four (81,734.)

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William D. Jelks, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested as Governor of Alabama, do declare the majority of votes cast "For Constitution" to be Twenty Six Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy Nine (26,879).

I, THEREFORE, Proclaim the said new Constitution so ratified shall go into effect as the Constitution of the State of Alabama on Thursday, it being the twenty-eighth day of November, 1901, and shall thenceforth be binding and obligatory as such upon the people of this State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State [GREAT SEAL.] to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of Montgomery, this the 21st day of November, A. D. 1901.

WM. D. JELKS,
Governor.

By the Governor:
Robert P. McDavid,
Secretary of State.

The "official proceedings," otherwise called "stenographic report," contains the doings of the Convention in full during its entire session, including all reports, petitions, documents, speeches, etc. The proceedings appeared first in the Montgomery Advertiser, and from the type so used in its regular daily issue, one thousand copies of a separate official edition were printed, and each day these were available for the use of members. The index was prepared by James E. Cobb, one of the members, and for it he received one hundred dollars. Only the index and title page were printed by the Brown Printing Company. See the Journal of the Convention, p. 1880, under the title "Stenographic Report," for reference to all of the proceedings had in connection with it.

Alabama was organized as a territory March 3, 1817, and admitted as a State December 14, 1819. In 1800 Washington county, then in the territory of Mississippi, but subsequently included in the territory of Alabama, had a population of 1,250. In 1810 the counties of Baldwin, Madison, and Washington, then in the territory of Mississippi, but subsequently included in the territory of Alabama, had a population of 9,046. Table 1 shows the population of Alabama at each census from 1820 to 1900, inclusive, together with the increase by number and per cent during each decade.

The population of the State in 1900 was 1,828,697, as against 1,513,017 in 1890, representing an increase since 1890 of 315,680, or 20.8 per cent. This rate of increase is slightly greater than that for the decade from 1880 to 1890, when it was 19.8 per cent, but somewhat less than that for the decade from 1870 to 1880, when it was 26.6 per cent. From 1820 to 1830, the first decennial period in the history of the State, its population increased 142 per cent, and in the following decade 90.8 per cent, but subsequently the rate of increase declined until the decade from 1860 to 1870, when it was only 3.4 per cent.

The population of Alabama in 1900 is more than fourteen times as large as the population given for 1820, the first census taken after its organization as a State in 1819.

The total land surface of Alabama is, approximately, 51,540 square miles, the average number of persons to the square mile at the censuses of 1890 and 1900 being as follows: 1890, 29.3; 1900, 35.4.

Table 2 shows the population of Alabama by counties at each census from 1820 to 1900, inclusive, while table 3, which immediately follows, shows, for each county, the increase (or decrease) by number and per cent during the 10 years from 1890 to 1900.

*The data here given in reference to population of Alabama is taken from Bulletin No. 5, October 20, 1900, of the Twelfth Census of the United States.

TABLE 3.—INCREASE IN POPULATION OF ALABAMA BY COUNTIES.

1890 TO 1900.

The following territorial changes have been made in the counties of Alabama since 1890: Part of Colbert has been annexed to Franklin; part of Jefferson has been annexed to Walker; part of Lawrence has been annexed to Colbert; and part of Talladega has been annexed to Clay.

Of the 66 counties in the State all but 2 have increased in population during the decade, the counties showing more than 50 per cent of increase being Covington, 103.6 per cent; Geneva, 78.6 per cent; Coffee, 72.3 per cent; Jefferson, 58.6 per cent; Walker, 56.4 per cent; and Franklin, 54.5. Jefferson county shows the largest numerical increase (51,919), but nearly one-fourth of this increase is due to the increase in population of the city of Birmingham.

The 2 counties showing a decrease in population are Cleburne and Lawrence.

TABLE 6.—POPULATION OF BIRMINGHAM, MOBILE, AND MONTGOMERY: 1820 TO 1900.

Birmingham, Mobile and Montgomery are the only cities in Alabama that have a population in 1900 of more than 25,000, and for these cities a summary is presented in table 6, showing the population of each from the first year in which it is separately stated in the census report, to 1900, inclusive, together with the increase and decrease by number and per cent during each of the ten-year periods.

| BIRMINGHAM. | | | |
|---------------|-------------|---------|-----------|
| CENSUS YEARS. | Population. | Number. | Per cent. |
| 1900 | 38,415 | 12,237 | 46.7 |

| 1840 | 2,179 | | |
| 1830 | | | |
| 1820 | | | |

According to this summary, the population of Birmingham increased from 3,086 in 1880 to 26,178 in 1890, or 748.2 per cent; and from 26,178 in 1890 to 38,415 in 1900, or 46.7 per cent. Mobile increased in population from 1880 to 1890 only 6.6 per cent, but in the last decade 23.7 per cent. The population of Montgomery increased from 1880 to 1890 at the rate of 30.9 per cent, but in the decade just closed, at the rate of 38.6 per cent. The greatest numerical increase and the greatest percentage of increase during the last ten years have occurred in the city of Birmingham.

Excluding temporary loans.

BONDED DEBT OF ALABAMA, SEPT. 30, 1902.

(Treasurer's Report, 1902.)

§3. After the ratification of this Constitution, no new debt shall be created against or incurred by this State or by its authority, except to repel invasion or suppress insurrection, and then only by a concurrence of two-thirds of the members of each house of the General Assembly, and the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays and entered on the Journals; and any act creating or incurring any new debt against this State, except as herein provided for, shall be absolutely void; Provided, the Governor may be authorized to negotiate temporary loans, never to exceed one hundred thousand dollars, to meet deficiencies in the treasury; and until the same is paid, no new loan shall be negotiated; Provided, further, that this section shall not be so construed as to prevent the issuance of bonds in adjustment of existing State indebtedness.—Constitution, 1875, Art. XI.

ADDENDA.

As originally prepared the data included in this publication was brought down to January 1, 1903. In the lapse of time incident to its passage through the press, certain changes have taken place which properly should be entered here, in order to make the Register of greater value. Only the more important changes, however, have been noted.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, p. 5.

Virgil Griffin, reappointed chief clerk March 3, 1903.

The term of the president, Hon. John V. Smith, has not yet expired.

WILLIAM THOMAS SANDERS, of Athens, Limestone county, was born July 1, 1867, at that place, and is the son of Benton and Elizabeth Frances (Thach) Sanders, of the same town and county. He was educated in the local schools, and at Vanderbilt University, receiving his A. B. degree from the latter in 1888. He commenced the practice of the law in 1889 at Athens, and has been continuously engaged in the practice since that date. Mr. Sanders was nominated as a delegate to the proposed constitutional convention of Alabama in 1899. He was a member of the constitutional convention of 1901 from the First senatorial district, and served on the committees on local legislation, and on militia in that body. He was judge advocate-general on the staff of Governor Wm. C. Oates, 1894-96; he has been a member of the State executive committee of the Democratic party since 1900; and is now president of the board of trustees of the Athens Female College. In 1889 in collaboration with J. J. Turrentine, Esq., he published a Comparative Index of the Sections of the Code of 1876 and 1886 (4to pp. 62). In June, 1900, he delivered the address before the Alumni Association of Vanderbilt University, on Suffrage in the South, which has been published in pamphlet form; and at the meeting of the Alabama Bar Association in Huntsville, July 4, 1902, he read a paper on "Legislation Touching Local Matters Under the New Constitution," which appears in the Proceedings of that meeting, pp. 100-119. Mr. Sanders is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, South. On November 6, 1890, he was married in Ashland, Hanover county, Va., to Annie Beadles.

BOARD OF INSPECTORS OF CONVICTS, p. 13.

The officials named on page 13, all reappointed March 3, 1903.

HOUSTON COUNTY.

ORGANIZATION.

On February 9, 1903, the Legislature created the new county of Houston, from parts of Dale, Geneva and Henry counties. The boundaries are given below.

On February 20, 1903, the governor appointed the following officers for the new county:

Probate Judge.—George Leslie, Dothan.

Circuit Court Clerk.—A. C. Crawford, Dothan.

The county was attached to the Twelfth judicial circuit, and to the Southeastern chancery division.

Dothan was made the temporary county site.

ACT OF ESTABLISHMENT.

N. 27.)

(H. 260.

An act to create out of the counties of Henry, Dale and Geneva a new county, to be called Houston, and to define the boundaries thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Alabama: 1. That a new county is hereby created out of the counties of Henry, Dale and Geneva and shall be called Houston.

2. That the boundaries of said new county are as follows: Commencing at the Alabama and Florida line on the west side of the Chattahoochee river and running northward along the line between Alabama and Georgia and up the Chattahoochee river to the center of the eastern boundary of township 4, range 30; thence west through the center of township four (4), ranges thirty (30), twenty-nine (29), twenty-eight (28), twenty-seven (27), and twenty-six (26) to the line between Dale and Henry counties; thence south along the line between Dale and Henry counties to the northeast corner of beat number six (6) in Dale county; thence west along said beat line between beats six (6) and eight (8) in Dale county to the range line between ranges twenty-five (25) and twenty-six (26) in Dale county; thence south along said range line to the northern boundary of Little Choctahatchee river; and thence along the northern boundary of Little Choctahatchee river to where it empties into Choctahatchee river, and to the west boundary of said Choctahatchee river; thence southward along the west boundary of Choctahatchee river to the boundary line between the counties of Dale and Geneva; thence east along the line between Geneva and Dale counties to the range line between twenty-five (25) and twenty-six (26); thence south along said range line between twenty-five (25) and twenty-six (26) to the Florida line; thence along said line between Florida and Alabama to the Chatahoochee river at the starting point.

Approved February 9, 1903.

CIRCUIT COURT JUDGES, p. 32.

Fourteenth Circuit.—By act of March 6, 1903, this circuit was created, to embrace the counties of Walker and Winston, taken from the Tenth circuit.

James J. Ray, of Jasper, appointed judge, March 6, 1903.

Solicitor.—Ezra W. Coleman, of Jasper, appointed March 12, 1903.
